

Table of Contents

Preface	i
1. Before the Search Begins	1
Review of the Discipline and Department and Its Mission	1
Department Review	2
2. Commencing the Search	3
Why Searches Matter	3
The Search, Screen, and Selection Processes	4
Important Initial Steps	5
3. The Hospital CEO and the Selection of Clinical Department Chairs	7
4. The Search Committee and Its Task	9
Who Should be Included on the Search Committee?	9
The Balanced Composition of Search Committee Membership	9
The Chair of the Search Committee	10
Confidentiality and Disclosure in Searches	11
Strategies for an Effective Search	11
5. Examples of Good Practice in Chair Searches at Schools of Medicine	13
6. The Diversity of the Candidate Pool	17
7. Assistance in the Search	19
Search Consultants	19
Experienced Administrative Support	23
8. Recruitment of the First-Choice Candidate	27
The Detailed Letter of Appointment	29
The Question of Contracts for Clinical Chairs	31
9. Successful Leadership Transition and Development	33
“Coaching” for Academic Medical Leaders	33
Succession Planning in Academic Medicine	34
10. Conclusions	39
Recommended Steps following the Announcement of the Departure of a Department Chair	41
Leveraging Gender Diversity by Janet Bickel	47
Appendices	53
References	89
About the Authors	92