

Tomorrow's Doctors, Tomorrow's Cures™

Society Based Professional Development Programs

Jessica Andrade

jandrade@aamc.org

Organizational Leadership Development

August 2009

Association of American Medical Colleges

This document builds upon 2001 information collected from presidents of academic societies and association chairs. In 2004, the Council of Academic Societies and Faculty Development and Leadership requested additional information to provide a more comprehensive list.

Courses are listed in the following categories:

Chairs/Senior Administrative Officers	Page 2
Residency Program Directors	Page 8
Clerkship Directors	Page 10
Faculty	Page 11
Resources	Page 17

If you have a program that you would like to have listed in this publication, please contact Jessica Andrade at jandrade@aamc.org.

CHAIRS/SENIOR ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS (INCLUDES DIVISION CHIEFS)

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Alliance For Academic Internal Medicine (AAIM)	AAIM Executive Leadership Program	The weeklong program provides excellent opportunities to learn about financial management, leadership, change management, strategy formulation, planning, operations management, and organizational management. The program uses the case method of instruction and relies almost entirely on cases from the health care field, with most set in departments of internal medicine.	Leaders in academic internal medicine who fill administrative roles.	Voice: 202 861-9351 Sheila T. Costa Director of Educational Programs Email: scosta@im.org http://www.im.org/Meetings/AcceptingRegistration/Pages/2009AAIMExecutiveLeadershipProgram.aspx
Alliance for Academic Internal Medicine	APM New Chairs Program	Held at Association of Professors of Medicine winter meeting.	New Chairs of Internal Medicine	http://www.im.org/MEETINGS/Pages/Default.aspx
American Association of Chairs of Departments of Psychiatry	New psychiatry chair orientation workshop	Contact program directly.	New chairs of departments of Psychiatry	AACDP Executive Office c/o Lucille Meinsler #319 1594 Cumberland Street Lebanon, Pa 17042 aacdp@verison.net http://aacdp.org/web/public/news.html
American Academy of Dermatology	Leadership Forum	The 2 day Leadership Forum is a highly interactive weekend that provides an opportunity to advance leadership and communication skills while networking with colleagues and Academy Leaders. Energetic and informative speakers will cover topics such as communication techniques, adapting to change and key leadership skills. Attendees have the opportunity to take the Myers-Briggs personality assessment.	Early career dermatologists (8 yrs or less since completing residency/fellowship training).	Linda Ayers Program Coordinator 847-240-1251 layers@aad.org http://www.aad.org/members/leadership/forum.html

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
American Academy of Dermatology	Leadership Program	The Leadership Program is designed to be an extremely comprehensive year-long program to help early career academic dermatologists develop the skills they need to succeed in academic dermatology. It includes face-to-face training sessions; a formal mentor program; and online learning components.	Early career academic dermatologists (8 yrs or less since completing residency/fellowship and currently devoting 75% or more of their professional time to academics).	Linda Ayers Program Coordinator 847-240-1251 layers@aad.org http://www.aad.org/members/leadership/academic.html
AAFP	Annual Leadership Forum	The ALF is an annual meeting designed to facilitate the orientation of new chapter officers. Presentations are made by AAFP leadership and staff to help the constituent chapters be better informed on Academy policies, positions and resources available to them. It is designed to update their knowledge of family medicine issues, learn about chapter infrastructure, and bring important information back to the chapters.	Chapter officers	Perry Pugno ppugno@aafp.org http://www.aafp.org/online/en/home/cme/aafpcourses/conferences/leader.html
AAFP	RAP Panel Meeting and Training	For those individuals selected as RAP consultants it is required that they will attend two 1-to-2-day training sessions each year.	Chairs/Division Head, Program Directors, Senior Faculty.	Perry Pugno ppugno@aafp.org
AFMRD	Senior Directors Fellowship	The Fellowship is a peer-driven workshop focused on issues of job maturity and rejuvenation. Participants drive the process through review of an outside reading, discussion of relevant points, and translation into skills useful in residency settings. The main goal of the program is to help senior directors maintain or renew their dedication and assess readiness for transition to a new phase of career growth.	Program Director with 10 or more years of experience.	Amanda Hanova ahanova@aafp.org http://www.afmrd.org/cms/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=110&Itemid=187

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Association of Medical School Pediatric Department Chairs	New Pediatric Chairs	This is a national program to provide new pediatric chairs (<3 years) the opportunity of having a senior pediatric chair help them deal with issues that arise. This program includes the senior chair talking with the new chair on a regular basis and also a formal visit to the institution of the new chair sometime in the first year. During this visit the senior chair not only spends several days with the new chair, but also meets with the leadership of the new chair's academic medical center to help them understand issues that are unique to pediatric departments.	New Chairs of Pediatrics	Voice: 919-942-1993 Fax: 919- 929-9255 Jean Bartholomew, Coordinator American Board of Pediatrics 111 Silver Cedar Court Chapel Hill, North Carolina 27514 jbartholomew@abpeds.org http://www.abp.org/

CHAIRS/SENIOR ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS (INCLUDES DIVISION CHIEFS)

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Association of University Professors of Neurology	One-day leadership course	Contact program directly.	Neurology department and division heads, program directors, and others.	Email: aupn@llmsi.com http://www.aupn.org/index.php?submenu=Educational_Programs&src=gendocs&ref=Leadership_Course&category=Main
Association of University Professors of Ophthalmology	One-half day session at annual meeting	Annual management course for chairs in conjunction with the Anderson School of Management at UCLA.	Chairs of Departments of Ophthalmology	Voice: 415-561-8548 Fax: 415-561-8531 P.O. Box 420369 San Francisco, California 94142-0369 Overnight Mail: 655 Beach Street San Francisco, California 94109 E-mail: aupo@ao.org http://aupo.org/
Association of University Radiologists	Radiology Management Program	A 2-day program, held during the AUR annual meeting, that focuses on management and leadership skills. Topics addressed include: negotiation skills, operations improvement as a vehicle for change; incentive plan for academic clinical radiologists; conflict resolution; turf battles in radiology; off campus imaging center; academic missions in academic radiology; and JCAHO, a quality improvement plan.	Mid-career radiologists in leadership positions, and radiology department administrators.	AUR 820 Jorie Blvd Oak Brook, IL 60523 630-368-7330 aur@rsna.org http://www.radiologyacademiccouncil.org/
Radiology Society of North America	2 ½ day course	2½-day course about issues relevant to current and future leaders in radiology. At the completion of the course, participants should be able to: Develop strategic plans for either academic or private-practice departments; discuss key points of group member, hospital, and managed care contract negotiations; summarize methods used to analyze and respond to business opportunities; assess the major components of a successful radiology practice.	Radiology Department Chairs; Vice Chairs; Program Directors. Junior Faculty, Residents with leadership aspirations. Non-radiologists in radiology-related leadership positions Private practice group leaders and administrators .	Voice: 800-381-6660 x3747 Fax: 630-590-7710 RSNA Education Center Attn: Business Strategies for Radiology Leaders 820 Jorie Blvd. Oak Brook, IL 60523 http://www.rsna.org/Education/cpd.cfm

Society Based Faculty Development Programs

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Society of Teachers of Family Medicine	Predoctoral Directors Development Institute (PDDI)	The Predoctoral Directors Development Institute (PDDI) is a comprehensive educational program designed to give you the skills you need to be successful in the role of predoctoral director. The format of the Institute will be based on the successful model used by the National Institute for Program Director Development.	Program Directors	Dana Greco dgreco@stfm.org Katie Margo kmargo@mindspring.com http://www.stfm.org/conferences/predocinstitute/09/index.cfm?CFID=793685&CFTOKEN=17075246
Society for Executive Leadership in Academic Medicine (SELAM)	Senior and Executive Leadership Development	The Society provides an annual conference that enhances leadership skills, provides more advanced professional development, and creates opportunities for networking and mentoring.	Women currently in or interested in senior executive and leadership positions in academic and health care professions.	Ellen Buckley Executive Director, SELAM 100 N. 20 th St., 4 th Floor Philadelphia, PA 19103 215-564-3484 http://selaminternational.org/index.php?option=com_frontpage&Itemid=1
Society of Chairmen of Academic Radiology Departments	The New and Prospective Chair Orientation	Presentations are given on various topics including billing, faculty discipline, leadership, clinical trials, HIPAA, compensation plans, how to motivate junior and senior faculty.	A two half-day program for new and prospective chairs of academic radiology departments.	Voice: 630-368-3731 Fax: 630-571-7837 Society of Chairmen of Academic Radiology Departments 820 Jorie Blvd. Oak Brook, IL 60523 www.scardweb.org scard@rsna.org

CHAIRS/SENIOR ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS (INCLUDES DIVISION CHIEFS)

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
AAFP	Resident & Student Leadership Forum	The Academy remains committed to fostering the development of emerging medicine leaders through its support of resident and student leaders. The Forum offers a comprehensive approach to leadership development activities that include both targeted mailings and interactive sessions at the semi-annual AAFP Cluster meetings. These sessions are led by national family medicine members.	Residents and students	Perry Pugno ppugno@aafp.org http://www.aafp.org/online/en/home/cme/aafpcourses/conferences.html
ADFM	Chairs Institute	The Chairs Institute is an optional workshop tied directly to the ADFM Annual meeting, taking place in the afternoon following adjournment of the annual meeting. The Chairs Institute provides for more focused time spent on specific subjects.	Chairs/Division Heads	Ardis Davis Ardisd7283@aol.com http://www.adfammed.org/events.htm
ADFM	ADFM Annual Meeting	The Annual ADFM “Winter” meeting is held in February each year for ADFM members only and is aimed at chair development in areas critical to the multiple missions of departments of family medicine. The program typically includes sharing of best practices/innovations from members combined with sessions aimed at promoting networking and communication between chairs. Another prominent networking feature of this meeting is an optional management dilemmas workshop that is geared toward intense learning from each other around difficult issues faced by chairs.	Chairs/Division Heads	Ardis Davis Ardisd7283@aol.com http://www.adfammed.org/events.htm

Society Based Faculty Development Programs

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Society of Teachers of Family Medicine	Faculty Development Series Workshops	STFM's Faculty Development Series Workshops are designed to prepare family medicine faculty to function effectively in an academic environment. The STFM faculty development core curriculum provides participants with a basic set of skills in teaching, research, and administration; facilitates present work performance; advances personal and professional goals; and provides family medicine with a well-qualified leadership pool. The Faculty Development Series includes entry-level workshops on teaching, research, and administrative skills have been developed to address the needs of community- and medical school-based family medicine educators.	Family medicine faculty	Roger Sherwood Sherwood@stfm.org http://www.stfm.org/conferences/fds/fd09/index.cfm?CFID=793685&CFTOKEN=17075246
Thoracic Surgery Foundation for Research and Education	Executive course on health care policy at the Kennedy School of Government	The participants, working in their study groups, will have the opportunity to define the critical elements of an improved health care system in the United States. At the final session, they will present their concepts to the class and defend their proposals. The presence of a significant number of foreign students will be an opportunity to look at other national health care systems for concepts to incorporate into the proposals for improving the U.S. system.	Physicians, trustees, and leaders of health care organizations, and government officials whose positions include a significant health care policy component.	Voice: 617-496-1069 Fax: 617-496-0300 Email: Eleanor.Brimley@harvard.edu http://www.tsfre.org/

RESIDENCY PROGRAM DIRECTORS

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Alliance for Academic Internal Medicine	Career Development for Medicine Pediatrics Program Directors	Job search tools	Pediatrics Programs Directors	http://www.im.org/CAREERDEVELOPMENT/Pages/Default.aspx
American Academy of Allergy, Asthma and Immunology	Allergy/Immunology Training Program Directors Winter Meeting	The annual weekend-long meeting allows training program directors to discuss current issues in accreditation processes and the training of future allergists. Strategic planning issues for the specialty are also discussed during the meeting.	Program directors of allergy/immunology training programs in the United States and Canada. AAAAI members only	Voice: 414-272-6071 AAAAI, 555 E. Wells Street, Suite 1100, Milwaukee, WI 53202 Attn: TPD Manager tpd@aaaai.org http://www.aaaai.org/members/cme_ce/
American Academy of Family Physicians	National Institute for Program Director Development	This fellowship is designed for family physician educators who want to enhance and develop leadership skills in order to become better prepared as effective directors of residency programs.	Family Medicine Residency Program Directors	Jay Fetter Executive Vice President, AFMRD jfetter@aafp.org 913-906-6105 (fax)
AAFP	Chief Resident Leadership Development Program	The leadership workshop was developed to provide an opportunity for chief residents of family medicine residency programs to develop their leadership skills and obtain an orientation to the policy-making process of organized family medicine.	Residents	Perry Pugno ppugno@aafp.org http://www.aafp.org/online/en/home/residents/conferences/chiefresident.html
AAFP	Leadership Track-National Conferences	Residents and students have several opportunities to cultivate leadership skills at National Conference. Additional programming focuses on learning about policy development, lobbying, and helping patients navigate the health care system.	Residents, Students	Perry Pugno ppugno@aafp.org
AAFP	Resident & Student Elected Leadership	The National Conference is a forum for nominating resident and/or student representatives to the AAFP, Association of Family Medicine Residency Directors, Residency Review Committee for Family Medicine and Society of Teachers of Family Medicine. Several other opportunities for appointed leadership are available.	Residents, Students	Perry Pugno ppugno@aafp.org http://www.aafp.org/online/en/home/residents/membership/getinvolved.html

Society Based Faculty Development Programs

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
AAFP Foundation	James G. Jones, MD, Student Scholarship Program	The program supports one medical student to attend the American Medical Student Association's annual Political Leadership Institute (PLI) in Reston, VA. AAFP constituent chapters identify and nominate medical students who are active in their state. The AAFP Foundations selects an award winner.	Students	Dianna Azbill dazbill@aafp.org http://www.aafpfoundation.org/online/foundation/home/programs/education/jonesscholar.html
ABFM	Pisacano Scholars Leadership Foundation	The program offers many career development opportunities, as well as scholarship funding, to the future leaders of family medicine. The Pisacano Scholars participate in semi-annual Leadership Skills Development Symposia and are offered a multitude of educational programs and mentoring relationships with current leaders in the field of family medicine. These programs are designed to enhance the overall leadership skills of the Scholars, to provide them with the historical context and scope of family medicine, and to allow the Scholars to network and form professional relationships within their field.	Students	Robert Cattoi rcattoi@theabfm.org http://www.fpleaders.org
American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (Council of Resident Education in Obstetrics and Gynecology)	School for New Residency Program Directors	The "School" will address multiple topics which are fundamental to a well-run program: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Residency program success factors • Resident recruitment, selection, orientation, credentialing and mentoring • Intervening with residents in difficulty • Resident leave policies • Resident research programs 	Residency program directors and coordinators	CREOG – 202-863-2554 creog@acog.org http://www.acog.org/departments/dept_web.cfm?recno=29
Association of University Radiologists	AUR Radiology Resident Academic Development Program (SARRAD)	This program provides focused mentorship, leadership and academic development activities to a group of high-potential second-year (PGY-3) radiology residents in order to better prepare for their transition into successful careers as leaders in academic radiology.	Second-year radiology residents	AUR 820 Jorie Blvd. Oak Brook, IL 60523 630-368-3730 AUR@rsna.org www.AUR.org

CLERKSHIP DIRECTORS

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics	Clerkship Directors Seminar	½ day program for ob/gyn faculty who run the medical student clerkship program. Handouts include tool kit for clerkship directors – Annually in January.	Ob/Gyn Clerkship Directors	Voice: 410 451-9560 Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics 2130 Priest Bridge Drive Suite 7 Crofton, MD 21114 bfetsko@apgo.org www.apgo.org/meetings
Association for Surgical Education	Educational Clearinghouse	Repository for surgical education materials, including curriculum models, teaching interventions, performance evaluation techniques and instruments, faculty development materials, and instructional materials such as videotapes and resource books.	Clerkship Directors	www.surgicaleducation.com/mc/page.do?sitePageId=28592&orgFd=ase
Association for Surgical Education	The Surgical Education Research Fellowship	SERF is designed to equip individuals with the skills and knowledge needed to plan, implement, and report educational research studies.	Members of the Association for Surgical Education that are interested in pursuing educational research.	www.surgicaleducation.com skepner@siumed.edu SIU Department of Surgery P.O. Box 19655 Springfield, IL 62794
Council on Medical Student Education in Pediatrics	Faculty Development materials developed for and by COMSEP members	Web-based materials.	COMSEP Members	www.comsep.org/EducationalResources/MedicalOrganizations.htm
Consortium of Neurology Clerkship Directors	Consortium of Neurology Clerkship Directors Education	Provides a forum for the exchange of views on educational matters related to the teaching of clinical neurology to medical students.	Open enrollment	http://www.aan.com/index.cfm?axon=redirect&&path=/go/education/clerkship/consortium Nancy Poechmann npoechmann@aan.com

FACULTY

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
AAFP	Enhancing Career Satisfaction	A series of eight presentations designed for practicing family physicians seeking new opportunities, a change in their professional direction, learning new skills like teaching or assistance with planning for retirement.	Members	Perry Pugno ppugno@aafp.org http://www.aafp.org/online/en/home/cme/aafpcourses/conferences/assembly.html
AAFP	Family Medicine Interest Group (FMIG) Faculty Advisor Summit	This initiative supports FMIG advisor education and leadership development. These workshops address effective administration of FMIGs, role modeling behaviors, family medicine messaging, FMIG programming, and fundraising strategies. Meetings are held every other year in conjunction with conferences such as STFM Pre-doctoral Education Conference and regional AAFP events.	Senior Faculty, Students	Perry Pugno ppugno@aafp.org
AAFP	FMIG Student Leadership Sessions	The National FMIG Network aids communication and the exchange of best practices between FMUG student and faculty leaders. The network consists of campus faculty and student FMIG leaders, five appointed Regional Coordinators, and one elected National Coordinator.	Students	Perry Pugno ppugno@aafp.org http://fmignet.aafp.org/online/fmig/index/fmig-on-campus.html
ADFM	ADFM Fellowship	The curriculum for the fellowship involves fellows' participation in the annual meeting of the Association of Departments of Family Medicine, which is organized around best practices, benchmarks, and the contribution of academic departments across all missions. Fellows participate in the entire ADFM annual meeting including the optional management dilemmas workshop conducted during one evening of the meeting and the optional Chairs Institute that immediately follows the meeting.	Senior Faculty	Ardis Davis Ardisd7283@aol.com

Society Based Faculty Development Programs

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
AFMRD	National Institute for Program Director Development I: Fundamentals	The Institute provides instruction, education, and formative experiences through a fellowship. This fellowship is designed for family physician educators who want to enhance and develop leadership skills in order to become better prepared as effective directors of residency programs.	Mid-career Faculty, Program Directors, Senior Faculty	Amanda Hanova ahanova@aafp.org http://www.afmrd.org/nipdd
AFMRD	National Institute for Program Director Development II: Advanced	The advanced curriculum focuses on organizational fit and self-evaluation, maintaining a personal and professional balance, the New Model, ACGME Navigation, advanced negotiation, developing presentation and leadership skills, and personnel issues with residents, faculty, and the ADA.	Program Directors	Amanda Hanova ahanova@aafp.org Nicole Fickel 1-800-274-2237 x6735 http://www.afmrd.org/nipdd
Academic Pediatric Society	Educational Scholars Program	The program offers enrolled scholars the opportunity to earn a Certificate of Excellence in Educational Scholarship. The curriculum includes 3 one-day didactic sessions, interactive web-based activities, development of an educator portfolio, and a mentored project. Scholars complete the full curriculum over 3 years.	Pediatric faculty and fellows	Constance Baldwin, PhD Professor of Pediatrics University of Rochester 585-275-8425 Constance_baldwin@urmc.rochester.edu http://www.ambpeds.org/site/education/education_faculty_dev.htm
AGS Foundation for Health in Aging and Association of Subspecialty Professors	ASP Geriatrics Development Initiative: T. Franklin Williams Scholars Program	The Association of Subspecialty Professors (ASP) created the Geriatrics Development Initiative (GDI) to address the healthcare needs of the older citizen segment of society. The two-year T. Franklin Williams Awards provide between $50,000 and $75,000 per year to young investigators interested in a geriatric aspect of their subspecialty.	Sub-specialists in early years of first faculty appointment in internal medicine, who are committed to geriatrics research.	www.healthinaging.org/franklin_williams/

Society Based Faculty Development Programs

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
American Orthopaedic Association	AOA –Kellogg Leadership Series	The American Orthopaedic Association in conjunction with Northwestern’s Kellogg School of Management, presents a program that brings the critical issues of leadership to the forefront of consideration. Presented in a three module series, the courses will help organizational leaders think and act productively inside and outside the practice setting and will give participants an opportunity to learn about leadership as it relates to decision-making, strategic planning, human resources, risk taking and negotiations.	Open enrollment, designed for practicing orthopaedic surgeons.	Pager: 847-318-7350 Fax: 847-318-7339 Marie K. Kotnour The American Orthopaedic Association 6300 N. River Rd, Ste. 505 Rosemont, IL 60008 kotnour@aoassn.org http://www.aoassn.org/LeadershipAcademiKKelloggTop.asp
American Orthopaedic Association	Leadership in Voluntary Organizations’ Governance Course	Designed to engage leaders in effective governance practices for the purpose of having maximum impact during their time spent in a governance role as an officer, board member or committee chair in a non-profit society. The course includes exercises with society managers, building bonds between the two groups.	Leaders, especially members of Boards of Trustees, key committee chairs, future society leaders.	Pager: 847-318-7330 Fax: 847-318-7339 www.aoassn.org info@aoassn.org
American Physiological Society	APS Career Mentoring Program in Physiology	The APS Career Mentoring Program is designed to increase mentoring and networking interactions among young physiologists and encourage professional interactions between men and women scientists, both junior and senior.	Available to any physiology graduate student, postdoctoral fellow, or new investigator.	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/careers/careers1/mentor/index.htm education@the-aps.org

FACULTY

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
American Physiological Society	APS Professional Skills Workshops and APS Refreshed Course in Physiology	Workshops are given each year at the Experimental Biology meeting based on one topic from the APS/ACDP List of Professional Skills for Physiologists and Trainees.	Available to any attendee at Experimental Biology	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/careers/careers1/mentor/wrkshp.htm education@the-aps.org
Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics	APGO/Solvay Educational Scholars Program	Faculty who want to enhance their educational scholarship and leadership. 15-month curriculum. Thesis and practicum required for graduation. Annual program starts each January.	Ob/Gyn faculty. Membership in APGO required	Voice: 410 451-9560 Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics 2130 Priest Bridge Drive Suite 7 Crofton, MD 21114 bfetsko@apgo.org http://www.apgo.org/members/index.cfm?cat=for%20educators
Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics	APGO Faculty Development Seminar	3 day program to enhance teaching skills for medical educators with emphasis on medical student education- Annually in January.	OB/Gyn Educators	Voice: 410 451-9560 Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics 2130 Priest Bridge Drive Suite 7 Crofton, MD 21114 bfetsko@apgo.org www.apgo.org/meetings
Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics	Future of Women's Health Care Workshop	½ day program focuses on leadership training. Annually in March. Held in conjunction with annual meeting for resident and medical student education.	Resident and medical student educators in Ob/Gyn	Voice: 410 451-9560 Association of Professors of Gynecology and Obstetrics 2130 Priest Bridge Drive Suite 7 Crofton, MD 21114 www.apgo.org/meetings

FACULTY

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Association of University Radiologists (AUR)	AUR-Kodak Radiology Management Program	A 2 day program on the development of management and leadership skills in academic radiology.	Open to AUR members only	Voice: 630-368-3730 Fax: 630-571-7837 Association of University Radiologists 820 Jorie Blvd. Oak Brook, IL 60523 aur@rsna.org http://www.aur.org/awards_programs.html
Association of University Radiologists (AUR)	AUR-Phillips Academic Faculty Development Program	A one-day program on education and networking; held during the AUR meeting; classroom presentations and small group discussions.	Open to AUR members only. Junior academic radiologists, preferably within the first 5 yrs of appointment.	Voice: 630-368-3730 Fax: 630-571-7837 Association of University Radiologists 820 Jorie Blvd. Oak Brook, IL 60523 aur@rsna.org http://www.aur.org/awards_programs.html
Society of Teachers of Family Medicine	STFM Faculty Development Series	Provides participants with a basic set of skills in teaching, research, and administration; facilitates present work performance; advances personal and professional goals; and provides family medicine with a well-qualified leadership pool.	The audience will be limited to 25 physician and other family medicine faculty participants.	Voice: 800-274-2237, ext. 5410 Fax: 913-906-6096 Priscilla Noland, STFM, E-mail: pnoland@stfm.org stfm.org/index_ex.html
Society of Teachers of Family Medicine (STFM)	Faculty Development Series Workshops	The series consists of seven different workshops. The courses are primarily directed at faculty who are neither fellowship candidates nor can attend a sufficient number of STFM or other programs to build these skills systematically.	Community Faculty, Junior Faculty, Mid-career Faculty, Senior Faculty	Stacy Brungardt sbrungardt@stfm.org http://www.stfm.org/facultydevelopment/fadevi.html
STFM Foundation	Faculty Enhancement	This program is designed to provide mid-career faculty with the opportunity to visit another department or program to learn about a particular educational activity for which the awardee has a new responsibility at his/her institution. The STFM Foundation typically provides two to four awards per year.	Mid-career Faculty	Roger Sherwood Sherwood@stfm.org
STFM Foundation	New Faculty Scholars	This program provides scholarship for new faculty to attend the STFM Annual Spring Conference plus the Faculty Development Series Preconference. There are typically four to five awards per year.	Junior Faculty (within first 2 years of their first academic position).	Roger Sherwood Sherwood@stfm.org

Association of University Radiologists (AUR)	GE-Radiology Research Academic Fellowship (GERRAF) Program	An AUR/GE co-sponsored fellowship program created to help advance the quality of scholarly research conducted by academic radiologists.	Open to AUR members only	Jacquelin Schneck, Program Manager, Strategic Accounts jaqualin.schenck@med.ge.com GE Healthcare-W 1365 3000 N. Grandview Blvd. Waukesha, WI 53188 http://www.aur.org/awards_programs.html
--	---	--	---------------------------------	--

RESOURCES

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Alliance for Clinical Education	Guidebook for Clerkship Directors	This guidebook is intended to be a comprehensive manual for clerkship directors as well as other members of the medical student teaching team.	Clerkship Directors	Gary L. Beck 402-559-7351 Fax: 402-559-5137 gbeck@unmc.edu www.allianceforclinicaleducation.org/guidebook.htm
American Physiological Society	APS Archive of Teaching Resources	The Archive is a searchable database of case histories, test questions, figures, lectures, animations, and links to physiology teaching resources on the web. All items in the Archive are peer reviewed for scientific content before posting.	Open enrollment	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.apsarchive.org/main/gradhome.asp
American Physiological Society	APS Career web site	The career web site is designed to provide easy access to a wide variety of online career resources and materials developed by the APS and many other organizations.	Physiologists at different stages in their career development	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/careers/careers1/index.htm
American Physiological Society	APS/ACDP List of Professional Skills for Physiologists and Trainees	A list of important professional development skills for physiology trainees that can be used as a professional development tool.	Physiology trainees and their mentors	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/education/skills.htm and http://www.acdponline.org/skills.htm
American Physiological Society	APS Professional Skills Workshops - Live	Live short courses held each January on Writing & Reviewing for Scientific Journals and Making Scientific Presentations.	Available to undergraduate students, graduate students, or postdoctoral fellows in physiology.	Amy Feuerstein 301-634-7236 Afeuerstein@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/education/profskills/
American Physiological Society	APS Professional Skills Workshops - Online	Online short courses on Writing & Reviewing for Scientific Journals and Making Scientific Presentations.	Available to any undergraduate students, graduate students, or postdoctoral fellows .	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/education/profskills/webcourse.htm

Society Based Faculty Development Programs

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
American Physiological Society	APS Refresher Course in Physiology	Course given each year at the Experimental Biology meeting to provide intensive overview of content in one area and review new teaching methods.	Available to any attendee at Experimental Biology or to anyone online.	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/education/refresher/index.htm
American Physiological Society	APS Mentoring Workshop	Workshops at the Experimental Biology meeting based on a topic from APS/ACDP List of Professional Skills for Physiologists and Trainees.	Available to any attendee at Experimental Biology or to anyone online.	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/careers/careers1/mentor/wrkshp.htm
American Physiological Society	APS Career Symposium	Workshops at the Experimental Biology meeting based on a topic from APS/ACDP List of Professional Skills for Physiologists and Trainees.	Available to any attendee at Experimental Biology or to anyone online.	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/careers/careers1/EBSymposia.htm
American Physiological Society	APS Trainee Symposium	Workshops at the Experimental Biology meeting based on a topic from APS/ACDP List of Professional Skills for Physiologists and Trainees.	Available to any attendee at Experimental Biology or to anyone online.	Melinda Lowy 301-634-7787 mlowy@the-aps.org http://www.the-aps.org/trainees/EBsymposia.htm
Association of Academic Health Sciences Libraries	Annual Workshop	Provides training on a critical library/information management issue. Scholarship Program: Training for administrative leadership in the health sciences library community. Up to $2,000 for participation in an education program.	Open enrollment for emerging leadership of AHC libraries.	Shirley Bishop 206-376-8705 aahsl@sbims.com www.aahsl.org
Council of Emergency Medicine Residency Directors	Navigating the Academic Waters – Tools for Emergency Medicine	Intended for junior faculty and senior residents beginning an academic career and provides the basic structure of what tools are necessary to succeed in academics and how to begin an educational and research agenda as well as finding mentors.	Open enrollment	Executive Director: Mary Ann Schropp 901 N. Washington Ave. Lansing, MI 48906 517-485-5484 cord@cordem.org www.cordem.org

Society Based Faculty Development Programs

Sponsor	Program	Description	Audience	Contact Information
Council of Emergency Medicine Residency Directors	Annual Academic Assembly	This annual conference has multiple tracks as well as special pre-day workshops; Navigating the Academic Waters for faculty development, a Best Practices track, a Special Interest track (i.e. geriatrics, international EM, etc) and a track for Residency Coordinators.	Emergency Medicine Residency Program Directors, Faculty and Administrative Coordinators.	Barbara A. Mulder Executive Director 517-485-5484 bmulder@cordem.org
Society of Academic Anesthesiologist Chairs	New chairs handbook on SAAC web site	Contact program directly.	New chairs	Voice: 847-825-5586 Fax: 847-825-1692 AAPD Officers Assistant Executive Director Denise M. Jones (d.jones@asahq.org) SAAC/AAPD 520 N. Northwest Highway Park Ridge, IL 60068-2573 www.aapd-saac.org
Women in Nephrology	Professional Development Seminar	The PDS welcomes both men and women participants and provides a forum to explore and discuss various career development issues and opportunities available within the field of nephrology and nephrology-related research. The PDS participants are encouraged to attend lectures and small group workshops where they can directly interact with the speakers in an informal setting.	Early career track- Senior fellows, Ph.D.s, and Junior faculty; Mid-career track: mid-level faculty.	Rochelle Cunningham MD PDS Co-chair Assistant Professor of Medicine University of Maryland School of Medicine 410-328-5720 Rcunning@medicine.umaryland.edu www.womeninnephrology.org www.asn-online.org