

2450 N STREET, NW, WASHINGTON, DC 20037
 PHONE 202-828-0400 FAX 202-828-1125
 HTTP://WWW.AAMC.ORG

Application
 ORI-AAMC
 RCR Program for Academic Societies to Promote Research Integrity
 (Revised March 30, 2004)

Administrative and Contact Information:

Title of Proposal:
Academic Society:
▪ Responsible Society Official:
▪ Title:
▪ Address:
	City:                      State:              Zip Code:
▪ E-Mail Address:
▪ Phone:
▪ Fax:
▪ Tax Identification Number:
Application Contact (if different):
▪ Title:
▪ Address:
	City:                      State:              Zip Code:
▪ E-Mail Address:
▪ Phone:
▪ Fax:
▪ Relationship to Society:
Cosponsoring Academic Society?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No If Yes, Name of Society:
Will this Project Require PHS Assurances?	<input type="checkbox"/> None <input type="checkbox"/> IRB or IACUC Review <input type="checkbox"/> Other, Specify:
Is this proposal focused on bioethics or bioethical research?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No If Yes, call Tony Mazzaschi at AAMC (202-828-0059) before submitting application.
Does this proposal focus on young scientists, including graduate students, post-docs, or residents?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No

(continued)

Synopsis

In 300 words or less, please describe the proposal including the project overview, justification, specific goals, target audience, objectives, and expected outcomes. Briefly describe existing gaps in RCR that this project will address. Briefly describe how this project will serve to mainstream or institutionalize RCR within the society or discipline.

(continued)

Detailed Proposal Description

Please describe your proposal in detail. In addition to the specific sections requested in the Synopsis, please also describe the project in greater detail noting exactly what is planned, the methods or process for accomplishing the project, the expected date(s) of the project, and the professional outcomes and benefits for members (in terms of strengthening the structure of the society or the discipline as a whole to address RCR), any other RCR activities that the society has produced (or that is in development), and how this project will (or could) lead to a lasting contribution to the discipline by increasing RCR and professionalism.

Empty box for detailed proposal description.

Attach additional pages (if necessary) – maximum of four pages.

(continued)

Budget Proposal

Please itemize anticipated expenses and revenues for the project. Include a proposed budget for the entire project, the amount of funding being requested, and explain how the award funds would be used. Also indicate if other sources of funding have been identified, and the amounts being requested.

Evaluation

Discuss how the project's effectiveness will be evaluated. If appropriate, address the use of performance measures or indicators of effectiveness.

(continued)

Dissemination

Please describe how the project's results will be disseminated within the society and more broadly.

Project Team

Discuss the background and qualifications of the individuals responsible for carrying out the proposed project. Highlight any special RCR expertise of those involved in the project,

Please e-mail completed application to: <CAS@AAMC.ORG>.

Further Information

A list of “Frequently Asked Questions” and responses concerning this awards program is posted at <<http://www.aamc.org/ori/>>. Additional questions about the program should be directed to:

Anthony J. Mazzaschi
Director of CAS Affairs
Association of American Medical Colleges
2450 N Street NW
Washington, DC 20037
tmazzaschi@aamc.org
202-828-0059 (phone)
202-828-1125 (fax)