

SGEA Activity Report

Steering Committee Membership

Name: Nicole Borges

Steering Committee Position: SGEA Chair

Academic Affiliation: The University of Mississippi Medical Center

Accomplishments of the region in the last 3 (or more) months:

- Crowdsourcing of regional education dean contact information for important regional information dissemination
- At LSL, regional networking meeting introduced three topics (implicit bias; UME to GME transition; UME role in CPD) around which members dialogued. Summaries of the discussions were published in the SGEA newsletter and presented at the regional networking meeting.

Plans for the next 3 months:

- Upcoming regional conference in Orlando highlighting innovations in medical education. We're excited that our program represents the work of 45 different institutions in the SGEA and a continuum of topics of importance to UME, GME and CME. 2 MERC pre-conference sessions will be offered along with a new pre-conference certificate program, Medical Education Teaching and Learning
- SGEA twitter account will be supported by Gary Beck Dallaghan

Upcoming opportunities to participate in regional activities (Grants, elections, etc.):

- Nominations open for steering committee positions: MESRE chair elect; GME section chair; CPD section chair; Member at-large
- Upcoming 2019 regional meeting in Orlando: MESA reviewers (including a new program where junior faculty/learners co-review with a senior reviewer), moderators for oral presentations, SIG leadership (elections to occur at the meeting)

Recognition (Awards, New members, Member Accomplishments):

- Peggy Hsieh, SGEA member at-large project: Medical Education Teaching and Learning certificate program will launch its first session at the upcoming SGEA regional meeting. The first offering will be, "Peer Observation of Teaching."
- Andrea Berry, SGEA member at-large, will succeed Janet Piskurich as SIG coordinator
- Steering committee welcomed Michael Trainer, MS3, Mercer University School of Medicine Savannah campus, who will bring the OSR voice to the SGEA.
- Steering committee thanked Janet Piskurich, SIG coordinator, and David Scudder, OSR representative, for their service.

- SGEA MESRE will fund two grant proposals
- New members: Nitin Puri (Marshall University); Stefanie Rachis (Wake Forest); Margaret Orr (University of Central Florida); Rachel Apple (Vanderbilt University); Sarah Stein (Baylor University); Bryan Touchet (University of Oklahoma); Kenneth Foster (Virginia Commonwealth University); Jennifer Nuetzi James (Wake Forest); Andrew Galligan (University of South Florida); Priyadarshi Dattathreya (Ross University); Miriam Zylberglait (Aventura Hospital); Megan Grinnell (MUSC)
