

Health Care Provider Awareness of the Military Status of Patients: Asking the Question Supplemental Information

Supplemental Figure: Percentage of individuals reporting health care access challenges among military* and non-military survey respondents

* Military designation includes current and former active duty military and veterans; health insurance coverage was reported for the most recent time respondents needed health care.