

Leadership of the AAMC Career Development Program for the Maximizing Opportunities for Scientific and Academic Independent Careers (MOSAIC) Scholars Program

The program administration will be led by:

Jodi Yellin, PhD, AAMC Director, Research Workforce, Training, and Science Policy and Program Principal Investigator
Alecia Bradford, MPA, AAMC Senior Program Specialist
Nova Robinson, AAMC MOSAIC Administrative Specialist

The program advisory committee members will provide their expertise and experience to ensure a successful program. Members are as follows:

Linda Chaudron, MD, MS
Vice President for Medical Education
RG Bing-You Chair of Medical Education
Maine Medical Center

Richard McGee, PhD
Associate Dean for Faculty Recruitment and Professional Development
Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine

Sallie Permar, MD, PhD
Nancy C. Paduano Professor and Chair, Department of Pediatrics
Weill Cornell Medicine
Pediatrician-in-Chief
New York-Presbyterian/Weill Cornell Medical Center

Dr. Joseph (Adrian) Tyndall, MD, MPH
Executive Vice President for Health Affairs & Dean
Morehouse School of Medicine

Raphael H. Valdivia, PhD
Nanaline H. Duke Distinguished Professor of Molecular Genetics and Microbiology
Professor of Molecular Genetics and Microbiology
Interim Chair Department of Immunology
Member of the Duke Cancer Institute
Duke University School of Medicine

Valerie N. Williams, PhD, MPA
University of Oklahoma Presidential Professor
OU Health Sciences Center Graduate College
Vice Provost, Academic Affairs and Faculty Development
University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center