Re: AAMC Sales Tax exempt in Utah

Utah has approved AAMC as sales tax exempt because it is a charitable institution. AAMC is exempt from Utah state and local sales and use taxes as well as transient room tax, resort communities tax, prepared food tax, and tourism leasing tax. The Utah state sales tax is currently 4.85%. For reference, a hotel room in Salt Lake City, UT is charged 11.85%. This sales tax exemption is only applicable to sales made directly to the AAMC, such as to a hotel master account, P-card purchases, or goods/services invoiced to the AAMC.

The AAMC Utah sales tax exemption number is N33195. How to obtain sales tax exemption depends on the value of the purchase. For purchases >$1,000 or sale is pursuant to a contract complete form TC-721 and provide to the seller. For purchases <$1,000 pay the sales tax, retain the receipts, and provide the receipts to the AAMC Assistant Controller and they will determine whether and when to submit a refund request.

Attached to provide to vendor when requesting a Utah state and local sales tax exemption for purchases >$1,000 or sale is pursuant to a contract:

- Copy of pre-filled Form TC-721 to be completed when submitted to vendor
- Copy of Utah State Tax Commission approval letter dated April 27, 2018

As some vendor's may be less familiar with tax-exempt out-of-state entities, please provide this document to the vendor in advance of finalizing the contract or completing the purchase so that the state and local sales tax and other associated taxes may be removed from our final bill. If the contract is to be signed well in advance of the provision of the goods/services, please request that the vendor provide a letter (or email) acknowledging that the AAMC is exempt from Utah state sales tax, provided that the law does not change.

If you have issues obtaining Utah state sales tax exemption, please contact Amber Sterling in Legal.
