

NEGSA: How to Be Involved

Sign up for the NEGSA Listserv by going to: communities.aamc.org

		Do you consider yourself....
		New to Student Affairs	Experienced in Student Affairs
Professional Development Opportunities	Get to know colleagues	Attend NEGSA Spring Conference, Virtual business meetings
		Attend NEGSA Community Calls
		Attend AAMC conferences (particularly LSL), Regional GSA Spring meeting, GSA business meetings and webinars
	Engage with colleagues with a similar interest	Join Professional Development Initiative
		Join the Group on Diversity and Inclusion
		Attend webinars from the Committees on Admissions, Student Affairs, Student Diversity Affairs, Student Financial Assistance, Student Records
		Attend Holistic Student Support Webinar Series
	Contribute to the NEGSA Spring Conference	Join the Holistic Student Support Virtual Community
		Submit a proposal for a workshop, panel, poster
		Serve on a subcommittee
		Serve as a NEGSA Spring/AAMC Conference abstract reviewer
		Serve as a Host Chair for a future NEGSA Spring Meeting
	Apply for an NEGSA Award
		Seve on the NEGSA Spring Conference Program Planning Committee
Nominate yourself or someone else for the Rising Star Award
Scholarship Opportunities	Contribute to Med Ed	Contribute Written scholarly work to professional journals, blogs, etc through AAMC (i.e. Academic Medicine , MedEdPORTAL )
	Grow research/netw orking skills	Participate in the Medical Education Research Certificate (MERC) Program
		Attend an OSA Bootcamp Session (often offered at regional conferences)
	Take on a leadership role	Apply for a NEGSA Member-at-Large Position
		Apply for a NEGSA Executive Committee Position
		Apply for a GSA Committee Position
	Develop leadership skills	Serve as a Host Chair for a future NEGSA Spring Meeting
		Apply to serve as a NEGSA Spring Conference Subcommittee Chair
	Apply to the AAMC LEAD program		