

CELEBRATING

BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH SUPPORTED BY THE NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 5-7PM

KENNEDY CAUCUS ROOM (325 RUSSELL SENATE OFFICE BUILDING)

RSVP BY JUNE 15 HERE

Please join stakeholders from the patient, provider, scientific, and academic communities at a reception to celebrate the life-saving achievements in biomedical innovation supported by the National Institutes of Health, and to thank the Congressional champions who have made the NIH a clear priority. Congress's meaningful, sustained commitment to NIH is essential to supporting biomedical research advances across the country that are saving lives and improving health. Join us in recognizing this important work!

Remarks to be delivered by:

Senate Labor-HHS Chair Roy Blunt

House Labor-HHS Chair Tom Cole

Senate Labor-HHS Ranking Member Patty Murray [Invited]

House Labor-HHS Ranking Member Rosa DeLauro

NIH Director Francis Collins, MD, PhD

Hors d'oeuvres and refreshments will be served. This is a widely attended event.

Hosted by the NIH advocacy community, including:

Association of American Medical Colleges
Ad Hoc Group for Medical Research
United for Medical Research
Association of Independent Research Institutes
American Association for Cancer Research
American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy
American Society of Hematology
American Heart Association
Association of American Universities

CRD Associates
Association of Public and Land-grant Universities
Act for NIH Foundation
Society for Neuroscience
Research!America
American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network
Coalition for the Life Sciences
The Academy for Radiology & Biomedical Imaging Research
American Physiological Society