

Abraham Flexner Award for Distinguished Service to Medical Education

This document includes the information fields required to submit a nomination via electronic entry for the Abraham Flexner Award for Distinguished Service to Medical Education.

Any additional questions should be directed to Sandra Gordon at sgordon@aamc.org.

NOMINATION PART 1 (Opens August 19, 2019 – closes January 24, 2020)

Section 1. Nominator Information = Account Profile

Please note, the nominator must be a faculty or staff member of an AAMC-member medical school, teaching hospital, or academic society.

Name

Mailing Address

Phone Number

Email

Professional Title

Institution

Degrees

Section 2. Nominee Profile

Name

Phone Number

Email

Mailing Address

Professional Title

Institution

Degrees

Nominee CV

Please upload the nominee's complete curriculum vitae.

Section 4. Introduction to the Nominee

- A. Succinctly describe how the nominee exemplifies all of the criteria of the Abraham Flexner Award for Distinguished Service to Medical Education. (300 character limit includes spaces)
- B. Describe how the nominee has made a demonstrable impact on medical education. This may be a broad impact across the medical education continuum or depth of impact in a particular area, such as undergraduate medical education, graduate medical education, or interprofessional education. (2000 character limit includes spaces)
- C. Describe how the nominee has had a significant impact on advancing the science of health professions education. (1000 character limit includes spaces)
- D. Describe how the nominee demonstrates strength in medical education scholarship. (1000 character limit includes spaces)
- E. Describe how the nominee shows personal expertise as a teacher and mentor. (1000 character limit includes)