Summary of Activities, OSR Administrative Board Meeting, December 4-5, 1987

* Kim Dunn reviewed the agenda for the two day meeting.

* Kim, Vicki Darrow and Wendy Pechacek reviewed the AAMC structure (governance and staff).

* Kim, Vicki, Sarah Johansen and Andy Spooner talked about how issues are raised and moved forward at the AAMC and ways that such issues potentially affect medical education.

* Kim and Clayton Ballantine reviewed the Officer's Retreat agenda.

* The group discussed the tentative AAMC Annual Meeting theme and how OSR fits.

* Clay proposed a survey of the OSR for their ideas on the program and on Ad Board project areas. He also proposed a luncheon where COD, CAS, COTH and OSR would discuss predetermined issues at the annual meeting.

* The group went to Capitol Hill to see Patrice Johnston, Legislative Director for Congressman Leland who recently introduced a bill for an International Health Service Corps. Sarah Carr of the AAMC/OGR arranged the visit and briefed the Board prior to this meeting.

* Available executive staff joined the Ad Board for an informal lunch.

* Dr. Swanson spoke with the Board and charged them with talking with their deans about how they use Graduation Questionnaire data, prior to the next Ad Board meeting.

* Dr. Tudor gave a brief presentation on why students are not choosing internal medicine.

* Ms. Elizabeth Martin asked the group for their input on why the applicant pool is declining.

* Ms. Janet Bickè asked the Board for any input they might have for the AAMC Task Force on AIDS.

* The group was asked to share what their interests are for the coming year:

  Dan Shapiro: counseling for "unimpaired" students; strategies for implementing problem-based learning; recruitment issues

  Bill Obremkey: evaluation systems, including NBME pass/fail; resources for international health opportunities; housestaff supervision and hours; recruitment

  Cynthia Carlson: manpower, distribution, unserved/underserved; quality of education; NBME/housestaff hours/supervision/evaluation; developing a national housing network

  Michael Rush: changing the medical school curriculum, reducing stress; promoting leadership; developing the basic science/clinical mesh; educating legislatures; financial aid; mobilizing the student voice
Julie Drier: counseling for both impaired and unimpaired students; preventive activities for enhancement of personal/professional lives of medical students; developing and AMA-AAMC link over impairment issue; a clearinghouse on AIMS programs; medical student health/abuse; ORR; improving OSR communication

Jeralyn Bernier: compendium of health policy programs; improving medical education; access to care; housestaff and medical student supervision issues

Maribel Garcia-Soto: minorities in medicine; OSR-systematic promotion of issues at school level (outreach); innovations in medical education; student evaluations (3rd year)

Andy Spooner: GME-what is it?; AAMC-what is it?; Progress Notes, CONFER

Clayton Ballantine: ORR; teacher and student evaluations; compendium on international health care; more interaction with the consortium; self-instructionals; housing exchange via regional chairs

Sarah Johansen: manpower task force; ambulatory care; indigent care; women in medicine- professional access to child care, opportunities for advancement

* The group agreed to pool these ideas, prioritize them, and develop the 1988 Annual Meeting program and the next issue of Progress Notes from there.

* The Board discussed possible topics for the next issue of Progress Notes. The deadline for receipt of articles is February 15, 1988. The tentative outline is as follows:

I. Chair's Perspective article: Kim Dunn
II. Main article-Medical Ethics/Language in Medical Training: Vicki and Andy
III. Project Forum: Implementing Problem Based Learning: Bill and Andy (ask J. Hooke)
IV. AAMC Focus: Student Studies--Who comprises the current applicant pool: Cynthia Tudor and Gus Swanson
V. Bulletin Board: Reports from students on committees including Kevin Flanigan on AIDS, Julie Drier on the Impaired Health Professional, Mike Pratt on ATPM, Joanne Fruth on the Transition Forum, and a summary of the Annual Meeting
VI. Federal Update: Status of Title VII Reauthorization: Sarah Carr
VII. Listing of Ad Board and their schools

Miscellaneous: Include contact person's address on each topic, possible survey, call for comments on various topics

Proposed for Future Issues: A. Who is the "perfect" medical student—what are we really looking for? B. Changing Demography—how it will affect the structure of the health care delivery system
