AAMC Curriculum Inventory at Learn Serve Lead 2018

This year’s AAMC annual meeting, Learn Serve Lead, is set for November 2-6, 2018 in Austin, Texas! Registration is now open here. There will be several opportunities throughout the meeting to learn more about and become involved with the AAMC Curriculum Inventory.

1. AAMC Curriculum Inventory – Open Business Meeting
   Friday, November 2, 2018: 10 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
   This meeting is for all key stakeholders of the AAMC Curriculum Inventory. We will be presenting ongoing operational work and future plans for curriculum inventory and mapping initiatives. Curriculum deans, administrators, and developers are especially encouraged to attend, as your input will be solicited and discussed.

2. AAMC Curriculum Inventory 2017-18 Knowledge Sharing
   Sunday, November 4, 2018: 4:30 p.m. - 5:45 p.m.
   This session will provide updates to curriculum inventory and mapping stakeholders, namely curricular deans, administrators, and faculty regarding the 2017-2018 AAMC Curriculum Inventory upload process and preliminary results.

3. Exhibitor’s Hall
   Saturday, November 3 - Monday, November 5
   A number of vendors and technological tools will be available for you to peruse, meet and greet at the Exhibitors Hall. You can read ahead about vendors who offer curriculum mapping tools ahead of the meeting here.

To read more about sessions and opportunities at Learn Serve Lead, check out a preliminary agenda here. If you are presenting at this year’s annual Learn Serve Lead meeting and would like to include data from the curriculum inventory, please make sure to submit your customized report request by September 15, 2018.

Onward!

Angela D. Blood
Director, Curricular Resources
www.aamc.org/cir